Declaration of consent to the collection and processing of personal data by Gynemed GmbH & Co KG

For the services offered by us we are collecting and processing the following personal data:

Name, address - Phone number - Email address - Bank details

These data are stored on the servers of Gynemed GmbH & Co KG and can only be accessed by authorised personnel. We hereby assure that the processing of these data is carried out on the basis of applicable law and is necessary for the coming about of our contractual relationship. Moreover, the customer's/prospective customer's agreement is necessary for any further collection of data. If the respective data are no longer required, they will be deleted automatically after 13 years.

Using rights

The signatory has got the right to revoke his/her consent at any time without giving a reason. Furthermore, collected data can be corrected, deleted or their collection can be restricted if necessary. Upon request you can demand detailed information regarding your collected data contacting the address mentioned below. Even a data transfer can be requested in case the signatory wants a transfer of his data to a third party.
